URGENT ACTION ALERT #1: FOX NEWS documentary on terrorism January 20 – TONIGHT
<http://www.foxnews.com/story/0,2933,244002,00.html>

Look for it tonight on FOX: "Smokescreen: Hezbollah Inside America" at 8 pm Mid ET.
" Does any terrorist organization pose a greater threat to Americans than Al Qaeda? The shocking answer to that question unfolds this Saturday, January 20th, at 8 p.m. EST, as FOX News Channel presents a breakthrough documentary, 'Smokescreen: Hezbollah Inside America.'

While Americans are still largely focused on Al Qaeda and Usama bin Laden — who's presumably rotting away in some cave — the terrorist group Hezbollah has been setting up shop right here in America's heartland. And most Americans don't know a thing about it. But we should know more about Hezbollah — a lot more."

ACTION ALERT #3: Free Speech Under Attack in Canada

An ex-terrorist, now converted to Christianity, tries to speak against violence in Islam in a neighborhood church – and is silenced by pressure from the mainstream media and local Islamist organizations, and may be prosecuted for a "hate crime." Lebanon-native Zachariah Anani was a self-admitted terrorist before converting to Christianity. His first lecture given on January 11 at the small Campbell Baptist Church in Windsor, Canada stated that Islamic doctrine advocates violence against non-believers, especially Christians and Jews. This indisputable fact (Koran 2:191-2, 9:5, 9:73) nonetheless drew the ire of CAIR and other Islamist groups, who prefer to whitewash the violent aspects of Islamic doctrine and political ideology.

Anani's second lecture – "Could Jihad Be Coming to Your Neighbourhood?" was cancelled after pressure from the media, pressure against Anani's continued citizenship, and harsh criticism of the sponsor of the lectures, Pastor Donald McKay. McKay spoke instead to a capacity crowd, speaking in defence of Canadian liberties and freedoms and promising to "jealously guard these things from being overtaken, from being overthrown."

On January 25, Anani is scheduled to give the third speech in the series, "Why the Islamic Faith is Indefensible." But he not get a chance. Members of the Windsor Islamic Association have filed a formal complaint with the Canadian Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR), which has sent letters to Ontario Attorney General Michael Bryant asking for a prompt investigation into Anani's lectures under Canada's hate crimes legislation.

Support Pastor McKay and Zachariah Anani in his efforts to speak the truth. Have all your Canadian friends, and even as friendly worldwide neighbors, write to Attorney General Michael Bryant, asking for him to NOT cave in to CAIR-CAN's oppressive intentions. And you might drop a line to Pastor McKay telling him of your support for his brave support of human rights and freedom of speech.

ACTION ALERT UPDATE: U.S. FBI's Lack of Arabic Translators

In the January 12 issue of the 910 Group newsletter, we passed on the request from Brigitte Gabriel's group American Congress for Truth <http://www.americancongressfortruth.org/> to send your experiences if you have volunteered as an Arabic translator and been turned down by the FBI. After we went to press with yesterday's issue, we received an update from ACT. People across the country responded with their experiences after 9/11 trying to help as translators and being turned away. The FBI has only a handful of Arabic or Farsi translators. ACT has found a possible pattern of FBI bias against hiring Middle Eastern Christians, Jews and apostate Muslims as translators. They are expanding their investigation, and are going to request hearings on the translator 'scandal' from Senate and House National and Homeland Security Committees. We will keep you updated on this developing story in coming newsletters.
